dGlobal Training and Consultancy Pvt. Ltd. Appeal and Complain Policy

1. Purpose:

dGlobal Training and Consultancy Pvt. Ltd. recognizes that sometimes things may go wrong for a student, who then wishes to make a complaint or an appeal. An appeal is specifically related to a matter of marking, for example, when a student does not agree with the marks awarded for an assessment, or other matters of concern, that are not related to marks, can be raised as a complaint, for example, against a member of staff, a student, or about facilities. Awarding bodies also have their own specific appeals and complaints procedures. Please refer below to the relevant awarding body procedures.

2. dGTC Appeals Procedure

Enable a student to enquire, question an assessment decision, attempt to reach agreement between the learner and the assessor at the earliest opportunity, standardize and record any appeal to ensure openness and fairness, and facilitate a learner's ultimate right of appeal to the awarding body with a view to protecting the interests of learners and the integrity of the qualification.

Students will be informed of dGTC and the awarding body procedures for appealing an assessment decision during the introduction part of the course for each course, like NEBOSH, IOSH, or other courses.

Learners can make an appeal directly through the NEBOSH website; procedures are available on the website. The learners can also make a request for an appeal through the learning partner's appeal email. On receiving a request, the learning partner will contact the learner and subsequently make an appeal on behalf of the learner. Once the appeal is accepted, the necessary fees will be paid to NEBOSH. Where a request is made to the learning partner, we will ensure that an appeal is made within the deadlines.

The outcome of the appeal will be notified by the NEBOSH directly to the learner, and a copy will be sent to the learning partner. The director will also guide further appeal procedures if the learner remains dissatisfied.

3. dGTC Complaints Procedure

Learners are encouraged to voice any dissatisfaction with the services provided by dGTC; this may discredit the learning partner and eventually the awarding body. dGTC is committed to resolving any complaint at the earliest.

A complaint may be related to any tutors, non-teaching staff, learners, facilities provided by us, or other nature. Any staff member is expected to be approachable and should resolve things in the right manner with good intention.

If the matter is serious for the informal approach, or it has been tried but remains unresolved, then the learner or staff member should follow the formal complaint procedure in writing. (dgtc/format/16/rev 0)

If a complaint is not resolved within the dGTC, the learner can make a formal complain to the awarding body, and these procedures are available in the awarding body's procedures as well. The dGTC will provide them without any reservation. This policy will be reviewed annually.
